

Canada East 7 Days Tour

If you enjoy the tour fills of landscape sceneries and lots of adventures, Tai-Pan 7 days East Cost Tour package definitely welcome you on board to explore Cavendish beach, Anne of Green Gable House, Confederation Bridge and ferry, Magnetic Hill and Hopewell Rock National Park all around PEI (Prince Edward Island) located eastern coast of Canada.

PEI nestled between the provinces of New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Newfoundland in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, separated from the mainland by the Northumberland Strait connected by world famous longest sea crossing Confederation Bridge. PEI is the smallest province of Canada has 805km of beautiful coastline surrounded with Light Houses, and the land characterized by red and white soils. Rich red soil makes the island an ideal place for mixed farming. White sandy beaches are predominant along the northern shores while red sandstone cliffs edge its southern exposure makes the island unique and will sure catch your eye. Besides great sceneries on Prince Edward Island, make sure to ask your friendly Tai-Pan tours guide to show you where the famous restaurants are that serve PEI's famous Fresh Cut Potatoes and delicious lobsters when you dine in Charlottetown. You really don't want to miss out the succulent tastiest island dish.

When Tai-Pan tours move on to the deepest nature harbours in North America, Nova Scotia. You will find out most of the province is covered in dense forest and gentle rolling hills very much alike Hamilton Ontario, except this province is surrounded by the Atlantic Ocean with only 45km wide connection to the rest of Canada.

Because of the geographical location and the way how the land formed, The Bay of Fundy on the west coast has the world's highest tides and it can go from in between 68' to 150' tall in difference on the sea water level. It's an amazing sight of tides changes in between the day and the night!

Titanic as we all know "the unsinkable ship" disaster has one of the most moving and intimate connections with Halifax, Nova Scotia. Playing a key role during the tragedy's aftermath and becoming the final resting place of many of her unclaimed victims. Titanic, Maritime Measume of the Atlantic, located on the south shore of city harbour it's a must seem artifacts displayed much more stories beyond the big screen.

Further west of Halifax rocky shores, Peggy Cove, is one of the most popular stops in Atlantic Canada known as the idyllic fishing village. The light house stood on top of rocky shores which contrasts deep blue never ends sea line, it became photographer's paradise, extraordinary! Remember to take a couple of more photos on the sight and you will be surprised by the gorgeous view captured.

Join Tai-Pan tours not only because of the out standing client service and great accommodation you received, best of all is the place where Tai-Pan takes you to.
